About Emmanuel

Emmanuel graduated in August 2020 with a Ph.D. in Chemistry. He is currently a senior analyst at Health Advances, a healthcare-focused strategic consulting firm with offices in Boston, San Francisco, Switzerland, and Hong Kong. Before joining Health Advances, he did a short postdoc stint as an innovation advisor with RTI International. To prepare for consulting while at UVA, he worked with UVA consulting club, licensing and venture group, and Ph.D. Plus.
